

Invitation

Research Frontiers in Biodiversity Economics

27 April, Leipzig

International Symposium on 'Research Frontiers in Biodiversity Economics' hosted by iDiv, the Helmholtz Centre for Environmental Research – UFZ and Leipzig University. We invite you to join the symposium on 27 April at Leipzig University's Faculty of Economics and Management Science (Seminar room 4, Grimmaische Straße 12, 04109 Leipzig).

Thursday, 27 April

Venue: Leipzig University, Seminar room 4, Grimmaische Straße 12, 04109 Leipzig

09.00-09.10	Welcome to the Symposium Matthias Schwarz - Vice-Rector for Research and Young Academics of Leipzig University
09.10-09.40	Introductory Talks Thomas Bruckner (UL) Bernd Hansjürgens (UFZ) Henrique Pereira (iDiv / MLU) / Aletta Bonn (UFZ / FSU / iDiv)
09.40-10.20	Nicholas Hanley (University of St Andrews) – Economics of invasive species
Coffee break
10.50-11.30	Diana Weinhold (London School of Economics and Political Science) – In search of win-win policies in development and environment
11.30-12.10	Marije Schaafsma (University of Southampton) – Ecosystem services valuation in developing countries: beyond standard choice experiments
12.10-12.50	Carlo Fezzi (University of Trento) – Land use change and ecosystem services: a spatially-explicit approach
Lunch
14.00-14.40	Charles Palmer (London School of Economics and Political Science) – Biodiversity economics in a changing world: bridging the gap between past and future
14.40-15.20	Andrea Cattaneo (Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations) – A quasi-random walk through the economics of biodiversity: an applied perspective
15.20-16.00	Stefan Baumgärtner (University of Freiburg) – Income inequality and insurance in the economic valuation of biodiversity
Coffee break
16.30-17.10	Martin Quaas (Christian-Albrechts-University of Kiel) – Love of variety vs. biodiversity in the ocean
17.10-17.40	Wrap-Up Aletta Bonn (UFZ / FSU / iDiv) / Henrique Pereira (iDiv / MLU) Irene Ring (Technische Universität Dresden)

Programme may be subject to modification.

FSU - Friedrich-Schiller-University Jena, iDiv - German Centre for Integrative Biodiversity Research (iDiv) Halle-Jena-Leipzig, MLU - Martin Luther University Halle-Wittenberg, UFZ - Helmholtz-Centre for Environmental Research, UL - Leipzig University

Please let us know if you would like to participate in the symposium by 10 April 2017, register here: www.idiv.de/biodiveconomics.